Carriage House

Located on Ball Point overlooking The Rappahanock River near the Chesapeake Bay, the Beswick family has completed the initial phase of their ultimate retirement home. The Corruluna Cottage is a modern interpretation of a shingle style carriage house, with an exterior stair tower acting as a circulation hinge for the dock and future Main House. The main house is designed with a modern plan oriented to the view, and a traditional exterior, porches, terraces and pool gently embracing the river without overwhelming modest neighbors
