Bonstra | Haresign ARCHITECTS, a nationally recognized design firm located on Fourteenth Street, NW in Washington, DC, is seeking a talented Project Architect to join our team. The ideal candidate is a BARCH or MARCH graduate with 5-10 years of experience in commercial, multi-family residential, and mixed-use projects.

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Hard-working, detail-oriented professional, committed to exemplary design and the advancement of the architect's leadership role in the industry.
- Demonstrates knowledge of building codes, construction budgets, project budgets and other professional practice issues.
- Contributes superior communication, management and organizational skills.
- Strong understanding of construction details, methods and materials on a range of construction types.
- Exhibits leadership, mentoring and directing team members and effectively maintaining relationships with clients and consultants.
- Self-directed and a self-starter.
- Demonstrates passion and enthusiasm for the industry; takes an active role in local professional associations and in the community.

REQUIREMENTS

- BARCH or MARCH Degree in Architecture from a NAAB accredited program.
- Minimum of 5 - 10 years of experience as an architect/designer on build projects.
- Demonstrates mastery of REVIT, AutoCAD, SketchUp and Adobe CSS programs.
- Architectural Registration is preferred.
- LEED accreditation is preferred.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides overall leadership for multiple and complicated residential, mixed-use and commercial projects.
- Evaluate design requirements; prepare and/or supervise site and building analysis.
- Explores innovative design concepts and solutions.

- Prepares and presents design drawings and assists in presentations both internally and externally (to clients, and to review organizations).
- Supervises the development of renderings and presentation materials for clients and/or public presentations.
- Generates project documents including plans, sections, details, and project manual in coordination of a complete construction document package.
- Collaborates with other lead professionals to ensure design and documentation are in accordance with project expectations.
- Collaborates with Team Leaders to develop, monitor and facilitate project schedules.
- Is a major contributor during client meetings and presentations, providing leadership and organization.
- Oversees the design work of others promoting integrated and cohesive designs.
- Presents design solutions to client representatives and/or design review committees.
- Mentors and trains younger team members and peers.
- Maintains and develops relationships with existing clients and cultivates new client relationships.
- Contributes to the spirit and vibrancy of the studio.
